Scary or Scared

October – an evil month or a harmless month for taming our fears of all things scary? The tradition originated with the ancient Celtic festival of Samhain, when people would light bonfires and wear costumes to ward off ghosts. In the eighth century, Pope Gregory III designated November 1 as a time to honor all saints. Soon, All Saints Day incorporated some of the traditions of Samhain. The evening before was known as All Hallows Eve, and later Halloween. (www.history.com)

Apparently, Pope Gregory wanted to sanctify this night by making the next day, November 1 All Saints Day – a holy day of obligation. Catholics have to attend Mass on those holy days or risk committing a mortal sin which unconfessed sends you right past go into everlasting darkness. He had the right idea of sanctifying (setting it apart for godly purposes) it instead of going along with the pagan culture. Since then, it's lost its connection to paganism for most people and simply become a night of dressing up, having fun and asking neighbors for a treat – usually candy of some kind, although Mrs. McGuinness who lived around the corner from us gave out 6 bottles of Pepsi to the first 6 kids to her house. You bet I was one of those 6 kids!

But this whole issue of Halloween for me is more about evil than candy, goblins, ghosts, scary costumes or carved out pumpkins – used to be turnips in Northern European countries to scare away evil spirits. It reminds me, and hopefully us, that there is a spiritual battle roaring around us. It's easy to think evil is out there in the world but may I remind you Adam and Eve were not to eat from only one tree in the garden – the tree of the knowledge of good and evil. Paul affirms that he too, like Adam, had eaten from that same tree when he said in Romans 7:18, 19, “For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature. [E] For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. 19 For I do not do the good I want to do, but the evil I do not want to do—this I keep on doing.”

Paul owned that he was both a sinner and a saint. But what is evil? Is it simply the absence of good like cold is the absence of heat? Or is evil simply a violation of the Ten Commandments like the men who murdered 3000 people when they flew jets into the Twin Towers? Yes, for sure, but evil is nuanced as well; it can be much more subtle.

In a blog by D.C. Robertson entitled “Biblical Perspectives on Narcissism,” Robertson, refers to M. Scott Peck’s book, People of the Lie. Robertson tells us that “Peck characterizes evil as a malignant type of self-righteousness in which there is an active rather than passive refusal to tolerate imperfection (sin) and its consequent guilt. This syndrome results in a projection of evil onto selected specific innocent victims often children, which is the paradoxical mechanism by which the People of the Lie commit their evil. Peck argues that these people are the most difficult of all to deal with, and extremely hard to identify. Amen, to that!!

We must remember the temptation in the garden for Adam and Eve was to become their own gods. This remains the temptation for all of us – falling in love with our image – as the Pharisees did – and demanding others fall in love with our image and worship us as well.

If we are own gods, then we are not submitted to the Lord of Lords and King of Kings. Erich Fromm (The Art of Loving) called attention to a variant of narcissism, a “malignant narcissism that is characterized by an unsubmitted will.”

Peck agreed with Fromm when he said, “To a greater or lesser degree, all mentally healthy individuals submit themselves to the demands of their own conscience. Not so the evil, however. In the conflict between their guilt and their will, it is the guilt that must go and the will that must win.” Peck, The People of the Lie, Simon and Schuster, Inc., copyright © 1983, pg. 77-78

May our wills never win at the expense of the Lord’s will. May we make this October a sacred month by remembering it’s all about His will and not ours. With every mention of ghosts and goblins, fright nights and ancient traditions, may we say and pray, “Not my will but thine be done.”

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Bruce

OSLC COUNCIL PRESIDENT: John Deitsch

The days are shorter, the temperatures are getting cooler, and we're starting to see some more moisture, all signs of the impending change of seasons. The seasons will come, and we will all experience the accompanying changes; it matters not if you are ready for the new season. Personally, I love the four seasons and enjoy the differences that each of them brings; but even if you prefer one season over another, you must acknowledge that each season has its unique wonders, and that the differences only serve to highlight the benefits of your favorite season. Similarly, each of us is different, we all have unique gifts, talents, and experiences, and we all are likely at a different stage on our own walk of faith. This can make it difficult for the Council to make decisions that are in the best interest of the whole congregation. However, I believe that this diversity is a good thing, a very good thing; and that the benefit of having this diversity is well worth the challenge that it presents to your elected representatives in making decisions. This diversity also emphasizes the need for everyone to be patient and understanding with your Council Representatives as we strive to guide the Church forward in a manner that serves the entire congregation, trying to find the best way to maximize individual members' strengths to serve the greater good while at the same time meeting individual members' needs. And for this we need your help. Yes, we need your continued prayers for wisdom and discernment to provide the leadership you deserve, but we also need you to communicate with us; to give us ideas and suggestions and feedback, and for you to volunteer your unique gifts and talents when the opportunity arises, and you feel called to contribute. And speaking of volunteering your unique gifts and talents, we are now in the middle of our Stewardship Campaign. The Vice President of the Congregational Council, Gail Gildemeister, is heading up that effort. Please give her your full support. At the time of submitting this Newsletter article I am not sure of exactly what she has planned, but I imagine that she will ask you to search your hearts and make a commitment to our church, either monetary or of your time and talents. Since the commitments that are made help guide the Council and help us to manage the business of the church, you will be asked to document your intended contributions with an actual pledge. And if you are just not in a place where you feel you can make that type of formal pledge, make that pledge in your heart, and try your best to honor that commitment throughout the coming year. I believe that living generously rewards generously, but ultimately how generous you are and how that generosity is directed is for each of us to decide. I also believe that if we are faithful to and trust in our God, that He will provide, both for us as individuals and for us as a church body; in His way and in His time, not ours. Keep the faith!

MINISTRY & TEAM REPORTS

MUSIC AND WORSHIP Ministry: Mark Nourse (Chairman) Trent Schmid (Counsel Liaison)

We give thanks and praise to our awesome God. God is so good, merciful, and kind.

The Lord has blessed us with so many workers in His vineyard, and we are so grateful. Thank you so much to Don McFarland, who led and coordinated our flag-bearers on Patriotic Sunday, September 11th. Thank you to our flag-bearers on that day of Remembrance, Luke, Evan, Gracie, and Mackie. Thank you to Jake, Curt, and Mark who played and sang at the Patriotic Service.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mark Nourse, Chairman of the Worship & Music Ministry of OSLC. Mark is so kind and encouraging to all members of the Praise Band, to all the musicians, and to all the members of the Worship & Music Ministry. If I may be so bold as to speak on behalf of the members of the Worship & Music Ministry, led by Mark and Pastor Bruce, and our current musicians Jake, Curt, Melissa, Tedi Morlan, Kathy Beddes, and me, we respect and deeply appreciate Chairman Mark. We recognize Mark as our esteemed and beloved Chairman, and we know he has served and will continue to serve as Senior Member of the OSLC Praise Band for many, many years to come. Mark, thank you for sharing your beautiful voice with us for all these years, and thank you for continuing to do so. If you have any questions or concerns about the Worship & Music Ministry at OSLC, please go to Mark Nourse. You are doing a great job, Mark! Thank you! Thank you also to Pastor Bruce. Thank you for your encouragement, prayers to the Lord, your sermons, your voice, and your collaborative and inclusive team spirit. We thank God for you both. You both are a blessing! We are so grateful for your leadership.

We encourage and welcome more participation with the Worship & Music Ministry. We are so grateful for our Altar Guild ladies, Sandee Isaacson, Kim Fasig, Diane Nath, Mary Leschke, Kat Redwine, and Sabrina Wolfe. If you would like to be a part of the Altar Guild, please contact Sandee Isaacson, Coordinator and Leader of the Altar Guild and Coordinator of the Epistle and Psalm Readers. Thank you so much to all our acolytes. If you would like your child to be an acolyte, please contact Sheila Courtney, coordinator of acolytes. We thank and appreciate all our greeters and ushers. If you would like to be an usher or a greeter, please contact the coordinators, Pat Simonson and Gail Gildemeister. If you would like to volunteer as an operator of the Narthex Cam, please contact Barb McFarland, coordinator of Narthex Cam Operators and Narthex Cam Director. If you would like to be a projectionist to advance the worship slides for the congregation, please contact Antonio Ramirez, Coordinator of Projectionists. If you would like to be part of a Children's Moment, please talk with Pastor Bruce, Leader of the OSLC Children's Moment Team. If you would like to join the OSLC Praise Band or play as an organist, please contact Mark Nourse, Chairman of the Worship & Music Ministry, and Minuette Grentz, Coordinator of Musicians & Music. We typically practice together for three hours per week, and we practice additional hours on our own at home. My understanding is that in the history of the band at OSLC, no one who has expressed an interest in being part of the band or serving as a musician at OSLC has ever been denied or turned away. All are welcome.

Thank you to our audio / visual team John Crossfield, Barb McFarland, Cat Smith, Anden, Lexi, Gracie, and Carly. Thank you to our projectionists Antonio Ramirez, Dave Engen, and Jack Balder. We do need more projectionists and Narthex Cam operators. Please see Antonio and Barb and sign up in the Narthex to help.

Thank you so much to all those who have shared song request lists with Mark and me and have offered feedback about the Worship Services. Many of you have shared that you would like more traditional hymns and Via de Christo songs included in the Worship Services. We have endeavored to honor those requests, and we hope you are enjoying the blended musical style each Sunday. Thank you to John and Suzanne McFadden, Joyce Bellucci, Debbye Boe, Jean Sojourner, Bill and Diane Lange, Russ Smith, Gail Gildemeister, and Barb McFarland for sharing your favorite songs, song lists, worship-style preferences, and requests with me. Thank you so much to Leo and Karen Seeber for your encouragement, guidance, and support. Thank you to Sue and Al Heiskanen for your encouragement and positivity. Thank you so much to Wendy Nelson, Jeff Scholtec, and Steve Scholtec for all your encouragement and for all you have taught me. Thank you also Richard and Erzsie Schaffert, Janet Curnutt, Jan Saterlie, Cat Smith, Sheila Courtney, Patrick and April Barrett, Janet Tow, Jean Sojourner, Jake and Andrea Anapol, Pat Simonson, Alan Huss, Diane Nash, Mary Leschke, Kat Redwine, Sandee and Larry Isaacson, Eileen Frey, Tedi and Steve Morlan, and so, so many others who have offered so much encouragement, kindness, positivity, and great feedback to the Praise Band and to the Worship & Music Ministry. Thank you to Trent Schmid, Council Liaison.

We have a new musician joining us as backup for Melissa and Curt along with Tedi, and her name is Erin. Erin, like Melissa and Curt, is a talented pianist, organist, and keyboardist. I would like to thank Mark, Jake, Curt, and Melissa for all the many hours they all give to band practice every week. I very much look forward to playing and singing next year with Mark, Jake, Curt, Melissa, Tedi, Kathy and Erin. I am also excited to hear more next year from Vicki Ramirez and Pam Campbell and the "RamCams" (Vicki, Antonio Ramirez, Anden, Pam, and Gail and Jim Campbell). The RamCams have led the congregation in singing from time to time since 2020, and I am excited to hear more from them in 2023. Vicki and Pam's brother might also be joining the RamCams, and I am excited about that as well. The future looks bright with the Worship & Music Ministry under the leadership of our Holy Father and our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, Chairman Mark Nourse, and Pastor Bruce! May the inspiration of the Holy Spirit continue to point us to Jesus Christ.

Very respectfully submitted,
Minuette Greutz, Co-Chairperson of the Worship & Music Ministry
on behalf of Chairman Mark Nourse

Service & Outreach Ministry: Ashley Kaiser (Chairman) – Leo Seeber (Council Liaison)

Thank you to everyone that brought food for the 9/11 food drive. All of the food was donated to Open Hands. Your generosity was greatly appreciated.

The 2nd Sunday Offering in October will be on October 9th, and will go to Lantern House. The Lantern House helps the poor, needy, and homeless by providing food, shelter, and emergency services. Their goal is to transition residents from shelter to housing, by providing a "hand up."

There is also a 5th Sunday in October, on October 30th, this additional offering will go to LCMC District Support.

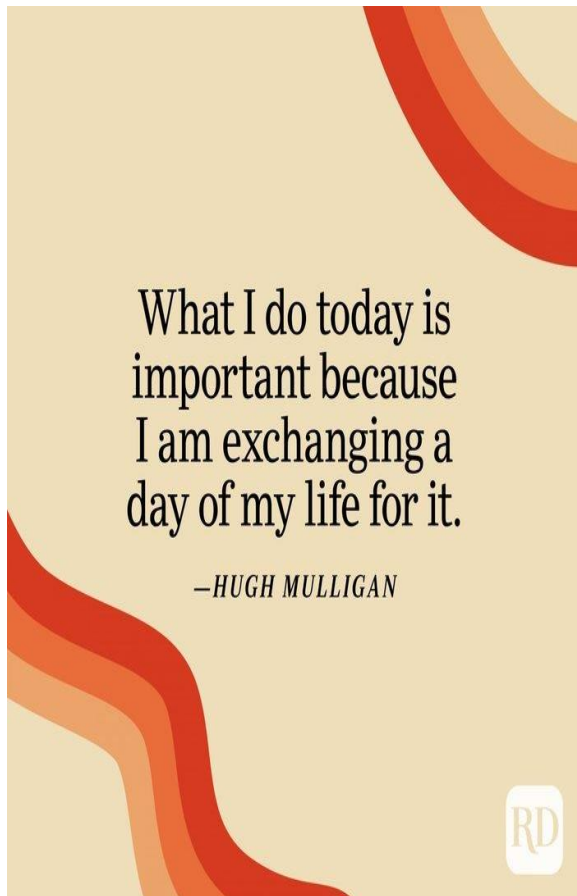

Yoga And Blessing Bags: On Saturday, October 8th we have planned an afternoon of Yoga with Stacy Ames and a time to put together "Blessing Bags." This will take place from 4-6pm in the Fellowship Hall. All are invited. If you only want to participate in part of the afternoon, that is fine too. We will be doing yoga first. We are also asking for donations to put in the blessing bags. Items can include travel size toiletries like tooth brushes, tooth paste, chapstick, lotion, socks, mittens, snacks, gum, tissues, etc. Everything will be put in gallon size ziplock bags to pass out to homeless people. There is a basket for donations in the back of the church, along with a sign-up sheet. I am looking forward to a fun afternoon. Thanks in advance to Stacy Ames for leading the yoga session. I heard everyone had fun last time.
